DEDICATION

To Mr. Arthur W. Rohr, who has instilled in us and in the members of this school a deeper love and a greater appreciation of music, and who through his untiring work has developed in our school musical organizations which have received wide recognition for their fine work, we the Seniors dedicate this annual.

In Memoriam

BILLY RICHARD SCOTT

Born: May 20, 1933

Killed in Accident: October 17, 1949

"Farewell awhile, good son of toil,
Go with her brown armed labours to thy rest.
Peace to thy slumber in the forest shade,
Student and friend, every gift was thine.
Thy name shall live while summers bloom and fade,
And grateful memory guard thy leafy shrine."

CLASS HISTORY

The lights dim, the curtains rise, the cameras start rolling and soon a picture takes form upon the screen.

Look! it's the freshman class of '47. See how they entered the J. W. Cannon High School, over 300 strong, looking brave yet a little frightened from so many people.

As soon as they became better acquainted with each other they called a class meeting and with the aid of their adviser, Mrs. E. G. Alexander, elected: "Shorty" Upright, president; Larry Fisher, vice-president; Margaret Cruse, secretary; and Charles Parker, treasurer. Their first representatives to student council were "Lib" Holloway and Johnny Deal.

Another freshman who entered with the class was the new principal, Mr. J. R. Melton. The year was interesting if at times confusing.

The scene changes and you see how they looked when they became sophomores.

While as freshmen, they were not represented in Student Government with an officer; but when they were ready to become sophomores they elected Joyce McKinley as treasurer of the student body.

With the aid of Miss Helen Rudisill, sophomore adviser, they held a very successful class meeting and elected: "Buck" Riddle, president; Lorna Castor, vice-president; Betty Hudson, secretary; and Lamont Krimminger, treasurer.

Larry Fisher and Peggy Aldridge were the sophomore council members.

Under the coaching of Mr. Lester McCarn and Mr. C. R. Cowan, the baseball team won the Southern Piedmont Conference Championship.

There's a scene taken at the class party when the sophomores left school for a half day and went to Mirror Lake by trucks. Not even the cool weather kept them from having a wonderful time swimming, playing golf, and eating.

Margaret Cruse was elected to reign as queen of the Harvest Dance. This was quite an honor, having a sophomore win the election.

Once more the scenes change and they are one step nearer their goal, for they are now juniors.

There is Miss Nadine Gragg, the junior adviser, helping with the election of officers, who were: Luther Corriher, president; Frank Rufty, vice-president; Jean Evans, secretary; and Royal Cadell, treasurer.

"Butch" Dwiggins and Larry Fisher were the council members.

Peggy Aldridge was elected as secretary of the Student Government.

There is a scene taken at the Junior-Senior dance. The theme carried out was a Mexican fiesta.

The junior class play, "Galahad Jones," starring Royal Cadell, when presented to the public, proved a success.

Again the baseball team won the Piedmont Championship.

This year for the first time the third year history classes visited the capital in Washington. They saw all the historical buildings, and returned by New Market, Virginia, to see the famous Endless Caverns.

Once more they had someone new, as Mr. F. O. Drummond came as the principal from Mt. Holly High School.

Look! The film is now in technicolor, for they have reached the last step. They are now seniors.

Miss Loraine Gray, senior adviser, took charge of the class meeting until they elected James Efird as president. James took charge and the class elected "Lib" Holloway, vice-president; "Jodev" Shelf, secretary; and Peggy Aldridge, treasurer. Gene Keever and "Jodev" Shelf were elected as council members.

Hulene Freeze was crowned Cannon High School's Christmas Queen.

Frank Rufty was elected as the student body president and Lamont Krimminger as vice-president.

The Senior-Junior was a success for everyone concerned. The theme used was "Holiday Inn."

Again the seniors ruled for a day, punishing all other classmen for their crimes against them.

Then came graduation night. For twelve years, or even more, they had looked forward to getting out of school, but now when the time had finally arrived, the looks on their faces told a different story. An expression of sorrow for having to leave a place where the four most wonderful years of their lives had been spent came over their faces.

Suddenly the theater lights are on again and the four years they spent in high school are once more over.

CLASS PROPHECY

You know, it certainly is nice to relax in the solitude of this cozy room with the most wonderful little wife a man could desire and observe the wonders performed daily in this fast changing world. It seems strange in contrast as we turn the huge hands of time back twelve years, when I was one of 231 dignified seniors about to receive my diploma upon completion of twelve unforgettable years in school. In that dark day of political turmoil, international efforts were centered around the harnessing of atomic energy, and now practically everything is affiliated in some means or other with atomic energy. Why, only this afternoon I looked in on my old classmates through the medium of my crystalized, televised, atomized and, of course, commercialized crystal ball, and what to my wondering eyes should appear but Johnny Deal, Norris Sherrill, and Luther Corriher still on the gridiron, working beautifully together to score the winning touchdown for the Cleveland Browns. They were ably assisted by Cleveland enthusiasts in the stands, Phyllis Watson, Jean Deal, the former Miss Jean Evans, and Dorothy Meeks, who are famous models in the big city, New York.

After the game it was nice to follow the crowd to the most elaborate and exclusive "hot spot" in New York, which is owned and operated most efficiently by Charles Morgan, Ralph Lloyd, Royal Cadell, Charles Parker, Bob Elliott, and L. M. Ruff. The chief attraction on the entertainment card was the all-star line-up of chorus girls, with Anita Roddie and Lois Freeland stealing the spotlight, while Bill Hailey and Bill Helms are leaders of the Sun Valley Boys.

Though hillbilly has really found a spot in the nation's top musical category, Bob Allen, Bob Harrington, Tommy Snipes, and Lewis McDowell are still, as we would have said in 1950, "Sendin the Cats," with some of the best jazz in all the land. At one of the best tables in the house I noticed Bill McInnis, Willie Wellman, Armond Wiles, and Bill Wellman, who, if you remember, were some of the best amateur fighters in the state, and are now fighting professionally in Madison Square Garden. With them were some very interesting personalities in the forms of Evelyn Shaver, Helen Spencer, and Dot Klutz, who are very talented partners in a beauty salon.

Turning my crystal hall to Detroit, I was surprised to find Larry Fisher, James Efird, Bob Alexander, and Lamont Krimminger, prominent lawyers, deadlocked in an important case with prosecuting attorney Jimmy Kelly putting up a brilliant battle in behalf of the state. On the front row in the huge hall of justice were Paul Sloop, Homer Ruff, Everette Rary, Dan Plyler, and James Sutton, who had good reason to be there, since the verdict would largely affect their production of jetmobiles. Also present and interested in the case was John Stancil, who is sacrificing riches to be a servant to humanity as a country doctor. Doyce Freeze, owner of the jetmobile Hell Drivers, was there, too, for he has quite a bit at stake in the all-important case which could mean much towards the employment of thousands involved. Thomas Dendy, Glenn Overcash, Bobby Fox, Everette Link, Ronald King, and Monroe Seamon are several concerned, since they are leading drivers in the death-defying act. Traveling with the act are Anne Blackwelder, Ruth Brown, Frances Woodard, Pat Keever, Dorothy Holshouser, and Joyce Weaver, who supply the entertainment at intermission.

In my scan of the country it was interesting to note those of our class who chose more conservative careers in their pursuit of happiness, such as Betty Mauldin, Saleeta Sasser, Evelyn Goble, Marguerite Cashion, Donese Morris, and Joan Riddle, who are housewives to husbands in the medical world. Their husbands, incidentally, are business associates of Alton Finger, Charles Carter, Bill Crider, Louis McCombs, Harry Puckett, and Wayne Petrea, who are also practicing in the world of medicine.

Though the world seems to be established now with lasting peace, Wade Rollins, Billy Joe Coble, Leon and Floyd Ensley, Gene Lisk, and Walter Milam are carving their futures in Uncle Sam's armed forces along with some of the supposedly weaker sex, which includes Merlee Daniels, Eva Hardy, Bobbie Jean Hilburn, "Butch" Dwiggins, Rhumel Wiles, and Mabel Patterson. Assisting those in the armed forces are Suzanne Drummond, Mary Lib Holloway, Buford Widenhouse, Herbert Hampton, and Donald Harris, who are connected with the nation's top military intelligence, which combats theories that militantly deny the validity of our principles.

The reception of my crystal ball was exceptionally good when it focused "Millie" Brown designing homes on the West Coast, and being ably assisted by Susie Wright, Betty Hudson, Charlotte Edwards, Betty Clampet, and Lorna Castor, who if you remember displayed originality in decorating our school gymnasium for dances. The homes being designed, by the way, were built by the Gene Keever Construction Corporation, which employs R. J. Troutman, Ray Waller, Bobby Huffman, Bill Foutz, Boyce Godfrey, Bobby Cook, and scores of others.

America's favorite pastime, the movie, is being threatened by a perfected television which claims such talented performers as Doris Brooks, Joyce Allen, Barbara Mills, Marie Belk, Carolyn Reynolds, Pauline Sasser, Betty Shinn, and Millie Lunsford, while the production of television shows is mastered by Bill Williams, Hayes Hatley, Randolph Martin, Robert Eddleman, Max Adams, and James Christenbury.

Something very publicly known without the aid of a crystal ball is the amazing accomplishments of missionaries Virginia Elliott, Peggy Aldridge, Mary Ann Helms, Katherine Moss, Mary Eller, and Alice Gamble. Making known their efforts are Mary Carter, Patsy Smith, Gwyn Keever, Billie Baucom, Helen Sasser, Willie Lee Little, and Jo Ann Brooks, who are journalists on some of the country's biggest papers. Fletcher Robbins is editor of the New York Times, while Dacil Furr, Jack Adams, and Walter Boggs are in the sports department writing about such great athletes as Buck Riddle, Fred Christy, Buster Barrett, Marshall Moss, and Bob Waller.

My crystal ball was really clear when it came across Norma Jane Tutterrow, the dancing sensation of Broadway, who shares honors in this field with Katherine Bradley, Leona Howard, Joann Smith, Betty Ross Teal, Lois Nall, Joan Hager, Peggy Hill, and Ruby Dabbs. Frankie Mann and Ruby Ledbetter have people laughing from coast to coast with their jokes, now that vaudeville is back. Chiefly responsible for bringing vaudeville back are Herman Wyatt, J. T. Yates, Louis Patterson, Donald McDaniel, Charles Beaver, Donald Hall, and "Jimbo" Bennett, owners of theaters that specialize in shows taking place in the "Gay Nineties."

Indeed it is a great day with television, vaudeville, movies. Speaking of movies reminds me of what a wonderful success lovely Hulene Freeze is in the picture "Tomorrow Never Comes," which was produced by Jerry Honeycutt and directed by Marlin Mull. The hair styling was under careful supervision of Wilene Ferguson and the costuming was done by Carrie Ann Funderburke. Other members of the cast include Betty Jo Anderson, Margaret Cruse, Arnie Belle Bassinger, Daphne Honeycutt, Dawn McClendon, Jodey Shelf, Marvin King, John Deyton, and Harvey Baxter. The production is based on the novel written by Mary Ann Bullock, which was published by the Harold Price publishing agency and acclaimed as having all the qualities of greatness by critics Dallas Harper, Charles Holshouser, Peggy Christy, Mary Jolley, and Rosa Marie Mills. We can't forget too that the newly devised color scheme in the movie industry was conceived and perfected by classmates Ronnie Brooks, Charles Overcash, Charles Richardson, and Raymond Bailey.

Yes, it's a strange world with the comforts of modern living in this push button era that has Glenn Cook, Andy Patterson, Jack Reese, Monroe Morgan, and Frank McDuffie working on the idea of a button that pushes the button. Yet, perhaps the greatest invention or discovery of this age is still in progress, with Donald Phillips, Marie Kincaid, Ruth Brackett, Barbara Crisco, and Marion Davis perfecting the serum to cure cancer and several other dreaded diseases.

Quite a number of our old classmates stood brightly in my crystal ball in white uniforms, making their contribution to humanity as nurses. These include Betty Branch, Frances Cavin, Nancy Cooke, Edna Gulledge, Rosinell Hatley, Faye Nell Rodgers, Margie Roscoe, Mildred Wagoner, Betty Brewer, and Novella Myers.

The teaching profession, offering advantages both socially and financially, has attracted many of our classmates, and it was nice to see Charlotte Collins, Connie Dwiggins, Patsy Gibson, Louise Griffin, Betty Ruth McNeil, Virginia Roberts, and Mary Bell Sechler still in school but on the issuing end. Nice, too, that they could teach at Cannon High, which still is, as it was years ago, one of the largest and most highly accredited schools in the South, musically, athletically and otherwise. Instructors in the physical education department are Bessie Howell, Ramona King, Raumell Corbett, and Betty Entrekin, who are doing a wonderful job. While my crystal ball was centered in Kannapolis, one of the most active spots in town appeared to be a dress show owned, managed, and operated by Nancy Jackson, Faye Miller, Maggieleen Nesbitt, Jeraldine Pethel, Faye Smith, and Lujean Sweatt, while the business establishment next door was stocked with music and instruments that supplied a booming business for Nancy Harmon, Marie Whitaker, Joan Widenhouse, Rachel Vickery, June Suther, and Aubra Ann Fisher. Also in business in the Towel Center of the world are Gonzalee Misenheimer and Earl Litaker, who have an auto repair shop that works wonders in co-operation with women cab drivers Margalene Hager, Elsie Taylor, Annelle Teate, Helen Wall, and Joann Wells.

Yes, it certainly is nice to relax with such an understanding wife and observe the wonders performed daily in this fast changing world, which can't change for anything but the best with such great teams as the 1950 graduating class of Cannon High School taking the lead in worldly developments.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

ARTICLE I

We, the graduating class of 1950 of J. W. Cannon High School, knowing that our high school days are fast drawing to a close, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament:

ARTICLE II

To our faculty and principal, we leave our sincere thanks and appreciation for all the work and effort they contributed in making our class a graduating one.

ARTICLE III

To the rising seniors, we leave our unbounded joy in finally obtaining the coveted title of "The Senior Class of J. W. Cannon High School," and also our deepening sadness in realizing that our school days will soon be a thing of the past.

ARTICLE IV

To the rising juniors and sophomores, we leave our high hopes and ambitions, with the sincere desire that these may be realized to the fullest extent.

ARTICLE V

To the rising freshman class, looking back to the days when we too were freshmen, we happily leave our fear and shyness at entering such a large and busy school, knowing that they, as we, will overcome these in a very short time.

ARTICLE VI

I, Bearl Adams, do hereby will and bequeath my share of fun in French Club, and my ability to stand "manseur" Somers for two years to anyone who is crazy enough to take French.

LARRY FISHER, Testator

I, Jack Adams, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to make friends to Betty Stafford, and my sense of humor to Darwin McCombs, hoping he will laugh as much as I did.

I, Max Adams, being of sound mind, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post to anyone who can make a majority of B's. My seat in Mrs. Alexander's home room to anyone whose name happens to begin with an A, I just leave.

I, Peggy Aldridge, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to be treasurer of the senior class to Evelyn Baker, knowing that she will need some money about this time next year.

I, Bobby Alexander, do hereby will and bequeath my leisure times in Mr. Van Poole's classes to Hilda Mauldin. My baritone sax I leave to anyone who has the ability to "just blow."

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Bobby Allen, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to play the drums to one who really needs it, Joe Dowless. I will my seat in Spanish to anyone crazy enough to spend three years trying to pass.

I, Joyce Allen, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post in front of 311 to my sister, Virginia.

I, Betty Jo Anderson, do hereby will and bequeath my "wop-sided" desk in bookkeeping to Barbara Carpenter. To Nancy Shelf, I "give" my nickname "Giggles."

I, Ralph Barrett, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times to Peggy Robinette and my ability to play basketball and baseball to Harold Deal.

I, Belle Basinger, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass science under "Tuck" Gudger to Steve Mitchell, knowing he needs a good teacher. And to Betty Jackson I will my love for Concord boys.

I, Billie Baucom, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to "Busty" and "Pud." My love for Landis I leave to Barbara Brooks.

I, Harvey Joe Baxter, do hereby will and bequeath my position on the football team to anyone hardheaded enough to want it. My "T" model goes to Loyd Wike, who can drive it to the opening of the new school in 19?.

I, Charles Beaver, can only leave to make room for someone who needs the space more than I.

I, Marie Belk, do hereby will and bequeath to Norma Penninger my ability to do the wrong thing at the wrong time.

I, James Ray Bennett, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to play on the football team to my brother, and my good times at Cannon High to my sister, Mildred.

I, Anne Blackwelder, do hereby will and bequeath my ability(?) to eat in class without being caught to Peggy Lindsay.

I, Walter Boggs, being of sound mind (as I am a senior), do hereby will and bequeath my coveted position on the football team to Bill Bennett, and my position on the baseball team to Bobby Quay.

I, Ruth Brackett, do hereby will and bequeath my love and respect for my teachers to my sister, Cleo, and my seat in Mr. Van Poole's geometry class to any person lucky enough to get it.

I, Kathy Bradley, do hereby will and bequeath to Carolyn Huffman my position as office page, hoping she can run faster than I. To my sister, "Suzie", who will graduate with the class of "61", I leave all of my good times.

I, Betty Branch, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to be in Mr. Coffey's home room, and to graduate, to my best friend, Evelyn Baker.

I, Betty Brewer, do hereby will and bequeath my love for black Buicks to Doris Gibson, knowing how much she likes them.

I, Doris Brooks, do hereby will and bequeath to my brother, "Sac", my ability to graduate, fearing that he may have trouble getting out of Aycock.

I, Jo Ann Brooks, do hereby will and bequeath my position of President of the F.H.A. to any boy who feels he is capable of taking it.

I, Ronnie Brooks, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to go steady to anyone who likes it as well as I do, and my love for Cannon High I leave to all future students.

I, Millie Brown, do hereby will and bequeath my hips to everyone who has ever called me "Hippie," "Whaletail,"

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

"Meatball," "Tornado," and the "Bendix Wiggle." I hope they suffer as much as I have these four years.

I, Ruth Brown, being of sound mind and sounder body, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to Kay Frances Turner. (Thanks to summer school.)

I, Mary Ann Bullock, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to study to my brother, Bill, a rising Senior, knowing he will need it. My monitor post, I leave to anyone who can shout "Single File!" loud enough to be heard.

I, Roval Cadell, do hereby will and bequeath my seat on the foothall bus to my nephew, Steve, knowing that he will need it when he makes the team.

I, Charles Carter, do hereby will and bequeath a wonderful senior year in school to Janice Wood. (Wish I had one more!) To my brother, Jimmy, I leave my ability to graduate in four years.

I, Mary Carter, do herehy will and hequeath my good times in D.O. to Louise Pope and Betty Black.

I, Marguerite Cashion, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to stay out of detention hall during my four years in high school to Mary Fowler; my ahility to make good grades I leave to Betty Jean Cameron.

I, Lorna Brown Castor, do hereby will and bequeath my good times in high school to both my hrothers, Charles and Dan, and my position as majorette to anyone (preferably a girl) lucky as I was to get it.

I, Frances Cavin, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to Phyllis Canup. I also leave my sincere hope that my two brothers, Joe and Jerry, will finish school in four years.

I, James Christenbury, do herehy will and hequeath my seat in Mrs. Alexander's home room to Herman Cline when he hecomes a senior.

I, Fred Christy, do hereby will and hequeath my ahility to graduate in five years to Jimmy Deal, but it looks as if he will never make it.

I, Peggy Christy, do hereby will and bequeath my ahility(?) to hecome a senior to Doris Gohle and Shirley Wilhelm.

I, Betty Clampet, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times with the band to Grady Roseman, and to Annie "Jo" Armstrong, I leave a hushel of my hair, knowing how much she needs it.

I, Billy Joe Coble, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in band to Jerry Sides and my love for girls to Darwin "Doc" McCombs.

I, Charlotte Collins, being of sound body, and almost sound of mind, do hereby will and bequeath my experience as a "professional baby sitter" to Norma Hardy, knowing that she and "Kent" are planning on wedding bells soon. To Betty Cloninger I will my love for "Ginns" and "Papa."

I, Bobby Cook, do hereby will and bequeath my "freckles" to C. W. Barnhardt, because they just suit his blond hair.

I, Glenn Cook, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to all underclassmen, knowing that if they are smart, they will accept them.

I, Nancy Cook, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Albemarle boys to Evelyn Garriss and Norma Peninger. To Cannon High, I just leave. (I hope.)

I, Raumell Corbett, do hereby will and bequeath the privilege of having Mr. Somers as a teacher to Ruby Edwards.

I, Luther Corriher, do hereby will and bequeath to Buzzy Yarborough my ahility to get out of school in only six years, knowing he will run me a close race, and my position on the football team to Alton Wellmon.

I, Bill Crider, do hereby will and bequeath my love for "Speed" to Ray McKinney, and my ability to "stay awake" to Marie Chapman.

I, Barbara Crisco, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in chapel to Barbara Hill, and to Harold Deal, I leave my seat in third period study hall.

I, "Shorty" Cruse, do hereby will and bequeath my position as band sponsor to my sister, Dolly, and to Ted Tabor all of my good times in high school.

I, Ruby Dabbs, do hereby will and bequeath my love and admiration for Mrs. Whitmire to anyone who has sense enough to accept it, and to Elecia Roberts, I leave my position in banking class, hoping that she doesn't make as many mistakes as I did.

I, Merlee Daniels, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get to school on time to "Becky" Phillips, knowing that I will not be along. All my good times at Cannon High I leave to my sister, Jean, a rising freshman.

I, Marion Davis, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in typing to my sister, Gladys, hoping she will not make as many mistakes as I have.

I, John H. (Johnny) Deal, being of sound mind(?) and body, do hereby will and bequeath my parking place in the horseshoe to anyone who is crazy enough to leave a car there. Second, I leave my football jersey, number 35, to Lee Fink, with the hope that it will help him make the Shrine game next year. Third, I just leave. (Period)

I, Tom Dendy (being absent-minded) do hereby will and bequeath my ability to skip activity period to my one and only, Bennie Baucom (Flat Brains), and my good times at Cannon High to my sister, Joyce.

I, John Reynolds Deyton, do hereby will and bequeath my position at guard and tackle on the football team, and also my ignorance to take trig and physics the same year to Charles Steen.

I, Suzanne Eric Drummond, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to write a letter every day to Norma Barnhardt, and my sympathy to any girl who has a boy friend in college.

I, Connie Dwiggins, do hereby will and bequeath my love for love and my ability to make all "A's" in history III to Gurline Compton and Thelma Roseman.

I, "Butch" Dwiggins, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to earn my letter my freshman year to any rising freshman who loves basketball as well as I, and my position on the cheerleading staff to Jean Riggs and Richard Griffin.

I, Robert Eddleman, do hereby will and bequeath my knowledge of trig to anyone who has enough patience to learn it and listen to Mr. Van Poole's jokes at the same time.

I, Charlotte Edwards, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post to my cousin, Fay Wright, who will soon be coming to Cannon High.

I, "Mickey" Efird, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to make love to my cousin, Charles, and my "knack" to go four years to high school and not go steady to Phyllis Finger, knowing she will need it greatly.

I, Mary Eller, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to become a senior to my sister, who is a rising sophomore, and to Joan Thomas, I will my good times at K.H.S.

I, Bobby Elliott, do hereby will and bequeath my dancing teacher, Nancy Lentz, to Jimmy Donahue and Ray McKinney, knowing they need one.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Virginia Lee Elliott, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get to school before the last bell, and my love for Cannon High to Betty Black.

I, Floyd Ensley, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to Jimmy Strickland, and my love for all girls to Herman Cline.

I, Leon Ensley, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get through high school to Harold Deal.

I, Jean Evans, do hereby will and bequeath my bobby pins to Janice Wood, hoping she will take advantage of them; and to Nancy Shepherd my monitor post on the second floor, north tower, hoping she can survive the traffic and the cold weather.

I, Willene Ferguson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate without too much studying to my cousin, Carol. To Etta Sue Boggs, I gladly leave my everlasting "silly giggles," especially in last period study hall.

I, Alton Finger, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post to anyone who thinks he's man enough to keep people from going out the fire escape door.

I, Aubra Ann Fisher, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to my sister, Ravenell, and to Nancy Jo Fisher, I leave my ability to graduate, knowing she is much more interested in a certain other subject than in school.

I, Larry Fisher, do hereby will and bequeath to Annie Lou Cook and Jean Kay Dayvault, Davidson and Wingate Colleges, respectively, knowing that "there's MEN in them thar schools." Happy hunting, girls.

I, Bill Foutz, do hereby will and bequeath my knowledge of sheet metal to Lloyd Wike.

I, Bobby Ray Fox, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High School to Carol Edwards, who is a rising senior.

I, Lois Freeland, do hereby will and bequeath my ability and love for dancing to Phyllis Freeland and to anyone who loves dancing as much as I.

I, Doyce Freeze, do hereby will and bequeath James Donahue to anyone who has a car and is crazy enough to take him to town every day at lunch. To my brother, Mack, I leave my chewing gum under the desk in room 210.

I, Hulene Freeze, do hereby will and bequeath my sponsor uniform to any warm-blooded mammal who can pull, squeeze, and jerk into it. To Gypsy Kennerly, I will my monitor post and wonderful times at K.H.S., with the hope that she can survive the bruises.

I, Carrie Ann Funderburk, do hereby will and bequeath to Peggy Lindsay my ability to chase after all of the boys for four years and never catch one.

I, Dacil Furr, do hereby will and bequeath to Gene McCombs my monitor post, hoping he lives through it. Also I leave to Dwight Goodnight my ability to be at the wrong place at the right time.

I, Alice Gamble, wish all well who try to amble through four years of hectic scramble. (It can't be done!)

I, Patsy Gibson, do hereby will and bequeath my shorthand book and all that goes with it to "Beckie" Phillips, hoping she won't be sucker enough to take advantage of it.

I, Evelyn Goble, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times in D.O. to anybody lucky enough to get it.

I, Boyce Godfrey, do hereby will and bequeath my front seat in assembly to some lucky fellow who has been hit by a jet-propelled tree.

I, Louise Griffin, do hereby will and bequeath my silly laugh to Shirley Stevens. To my brother, a rising sophomore, I will all my wails and groans in becoming a senior in four years.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, Phyllis Grayson, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times at Cannon High School and my position on the varsity basketball team to Phyllis Smith, and my position as a monitor and a cheerleader to Mildred Bennett, hoping she can take all the bumps and bruises that go with it.

I, Edna Gulledge, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to Maxine Kerley. My silly giggles I gladly leave to anyone crazy enough to want them.

I, Joan Hager, do hereby will and bequeath my good times in high school to Phyllis Thomspon, hoping she will enjoy high school as much as I did.

I, Margalene Hager, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get to the twelfth grade to my brother, Mack, and my crazy laugh and idle hours to Barbara Martin.

I, Billy Hailey, do hereby will and bequeath my "dear ole chapel seat" to anyone who is large enough to fill it up.

I, Donald Hall, do hereby will and bequeath the books which were "adopted" from me without my consent to the rascal who took a liking to them, and I only hope he is charged for the damages which I did to them. Poor sucker.

I, Herbert Hampton, do hereby will and bequeath to Lee Fink my address book which contains many sweet names and telephone numbers.

I, Eva "Jane" Hardy, being about as sound in mind as in spirit, do hereby will and bequeath my position as captain of the basketball team to my sister, Norma, hoping she will like it as much as I always have.

I, Nancy Harmon, do hereby will and bequeath my last will and testament to Pansy Hilton, hoping that in the next three years she can think of something more original than this.

I, Dallas Harper, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with the teachers to my brother, Ralph. I also leave the good times I had here at K.H.S. to Kyle Hooks.

I, Donald Harris, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to "shoot the breeze" in homeroom to Charles Castor. I know he can do it!

I, Bob Harrington, do hereby will and bequeath Spanish to anyone who is stupid enough to take it.

I, Marshall Hayes Hatley, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post to Dale Mills; my ability to "farm" to Johnny Bowers and my title of "The World's Worst Trombonist" to Phillip Tesh.

I, Rosinell Hatley, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to become a senior to Betty Black, who is a rising junior.

I, Billy Helms, do hereby will and bequeath to Ralph Harrington my ability to get stage shows for THE SUNVALLEY BOYS at activity period.

I, Mary Ann Helms, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Cannon High to my cousin, Betty Ruth Helms, and my position as office page to anybody who can stand up under the strain.

I, Bobbie Jean Hilburn, do hereby will and bequeath my place on the basketball team to my little sister, Phyllis, hoping she will "let the bench cool off" more than I did.

I, Peggy Hill, do hereby will and bequeath to any rising junior, who plans to take physics, my utmost sympathy. I wish you luck!

I, Charlie Holshouser, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to draw to Evelyn Honeycutt, who draws mustaches on pictures of men and boys. I hope that she will enjoy art as much as I have in the past years.

I, Dorothy Holshouser, do hereby will and bequeath my

I, Randolph Martin, do hereby will and bequeath my position as manager of baseball to Herman Cline, knowing how much he likes it. Good going, "Hormin."

I, Betty Mauldin, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to meet Alton between every class to anyone who likes to be tardy often, and my happy times here to Phyllis Finger.

I, Dawn McClendon, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to stay quiet in school to Helen Troutman, who certainly could use it.

I, Louis McCombs, do hereby will and bequeath my undersized band uniform to any under classman who is small enough to wear it, and my love for Cannon High—I just leave.

I, Donald McDaniel, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to flirt with women to Gary Hudson.

I, Lewis McDowell, do hereby will and bequeath my dancing ability to my younger brother, Henry, and my chair in swingsters to anyone who can play an antique for five years as I tried to do.

I, Frank McDuffie, being of sound mind and strong(?) body, do hereby will and bequeath my place in the senior class to Grady Roseman.

I, Bill McInnis, do hereby will and bequeath my position as guard on the football team to Clark Drake, and to Bobby Barts, my ability to stay out of detention hall.

I, Dorothy Meeks, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with Miss Knight to Jimmy Donahue, knowing that he needs it, and my good times I leave to Phyllis Canup and Annie "Jo" Armstrong.

I, Betty Ruth McNeil, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to become engaged to Ruby Eagle and Carol Edwards, who are doing a very good job so far, and to Shirley McNeil, Ruth Adams, Bobbie Clayton, and Mary Patterson, I leave the effort to "get a man."

I, Walter Milam, do hereby will and bequeath my position as tackle on the football team to Gary Sherrill. I leave also my ability to skip school and get by with it to "Buz" Yarborough.

I, Faye Miller, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass without studying to anyone who is lucky enough to do it.

I, Barbara Mills, do hereby will and bequeath all the fun my senior year has been to "Casey" McClamrock, hoping hers will be the same.

I, Rosa Marie Mills, with a mind as same as a crazy person could have, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate without getting married to Ruby Eagle. To Bobbie Clayton I leave my seat in assembly (if she can find it).

I, Gonzalee Misenheimer, do hereby will and bequeath all my "roaring" good times to any lion who happens to be running around loose near Cannon High.

I, Charles Ray Morgan, do hereby will and bequeath my desire to talk and flirt with all the girls to Eugene Whittington, 'cause he will need it.

I, Charles Monroe Morgan, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to my sister, Jeanette, hoping she will get more out of it than I did.

I, Donese Morris, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to lose my library card in the first month of school to anyone who likes to be bored in study hall, and to Therisa Ensley and Teny Wiles, I leave all my good times at the SAL-SPENCE.

I, Katherine Moss, do hereby will and bequeath all of my good times at Cannon High to "Phil" Moss and Doris Chandler. To Harlon Moss, I leave my seat in the senior class, hoping that someday he will be able to occupy it.

I, Marshall Moss, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in Mr. Van Poole's physics class to anyone who likes gas, water, and a "bunch of bull."

I, Marlin Mull, do hereby will and bequeath my chilly north tower monitor post to anyone crazy enough to take it, and my good grades in English IV to Jimmy Rodgers, a possible rising senior.

I, Novella Myers, do hereby will and bequeath my ambition to skip classes and get by with it to anyone who does skip and gets by.

I, Lois Nall, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at J. W. Cannon High to Donald Pless, a rising freshman.

I, Maggie Nesbitt, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post in front of the office to anyone who has a pair of lungs good enough to say, "Single File."

I, Charles Robert Overcash, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in physics to any poor fellow who believes all of Newton's crazy laws.

I, Glenn Overcash, do hereby will and bequeath to my smart, woman hating brother, Marvin, my ability to come into high school with something and go out with nothing.

I, Charles Parker, do hereby will and bequeath to "Lover Boy" Yarborough my permission to date Dolly Cruse.

I, Andy Patterson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with girls to Jimmy Rogers, because he certainly needs it, and to Phil Safrit my Dentyne Chewing Gum Factory for the simple reason she never has any.

I, Louis Patterson, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to stay in school longer than "Nat" Gilliam to Bob Barts, who will probably break all records.

I, Mabel Patterson, do hereby will and bequeath my position on the basketball team to Barbara Hill, hoping she gets to play more than I did.

I, Tharon Lucille Perry, do hereby will and bequeath my love for K.H.S. to C. W. Barnhardt and Ralph Deal.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, "Sissie" Pethel, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to Phyllis King, a rising freshman. To "Becky" Phillips, I leave my seat in the auditorium.

I, Wayne Petrea, do hereby will and bequeath my monitor post in front of Miss Gray's room to anyone crazy enough to want it.

I, Donald Phillips, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to finish high school in four years and not get caught for skipping to Jerry Bumgarner.

I, Dan Plyer, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to Wayne Biles.

I, Harold Price, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate in four years to James Brown; he may need it.

I, Harry Puckett, do hereby will and bequeath my unused paper and pencils to those planning to take government, knowing how much they will need them. My seat in Miss McArver's home room I will to any rising senior lucky enough to get it.

I, Everette Rary, do hereby will and bequeath anything of mine to Joyce Allen that she may find useful.

I, Jack Reese, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with the teachers to Charles James, and my seat in assembly to any rising senior.

I, Carolyn Reynolds, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to my kid brothers, Richard and Bobby, and my mixed chorus robe to Lucy Ballard, hoping she will enjoy wearing it as much as I have.

I, Charles (Buster) Richardson, in sound body and weak mind, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to sit on the football bench without getting hurt to my younger brother, Ray.

I, Buck Riddle, do hereby will and bequeath my drum major uniform to anyone who can wear it and twirl a baton at the same time.

I, "Jody" Riddle, do hereby will and bequeath my many nicknames to Hilda Maulden; and to Norma Hardy, I leave my monitor post, hoping she can survive it better than I have.

I, Fletcher Robbins, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to pass all my subjects with "A's" (?) to anyone unlucky enough to get my permission to do so.

I, Virginia Roberts, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in journalism to my sister, Irene, hoping she gets along better than I did.

I, Anita Roddie, do hereby will and bequeath my position as chief cheerleader to Donald Puntch, my good times on the band bus to Dwight Goodnight, and my love for dear ole Cannon High to Gypsy Kennerly.

I, Faye Nell Rodgers, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at J. W. Cannon High to Ruby Eagle.

I, Wade Rollins, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to make good grades to Wanda Barlow. My parking place in the "horse-shoe" I leave to Wayne Robinson, and my position on the varsity football squad to my brother, Ronnie, who I think can fill it very well.

I, Margie Roscoe, do hereby will and bequeath to Maxine Kerley all my good times at Cannon High, and my ability to bear all my nicknames to Joan Galliher.

I, Homer Ruff, being able in body and soul, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate in four years to Jack Sexton, and to all underclassmen, I just leave.

I, L. M. Ruff, do hereby will and bequeath to Jimmy Donahue my ability to drive.

my brother, Marvin, for from the looks of his first grades, he will need it.

I, Betty Ross Teal, do hereby will and bequeath my typewriter to my sister, "Chris" Teal, a rising senior, hoping she can type better than I.

I, Annelle Teate, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to eat during study hall and get by with it to Gladys Grass, and to Mildred Miller and Doris Jean Beck, I leave my good times in school.

I, G. W. Troutman, Jr., do hereby will and bequeath my ability to take girls home after school to Donald Blanton.

I, R. J. Troutman, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to become the first one to have my coat and shoes raised to the top of the flagpole to anyone going out for baseball.

I, Norma Jane Tutterrow, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to become a senior to my younger brother, Jerry, and my love for fun to Joyce Hinson.

I, "Shorty" Upright, being the last of the "Gilliam" gang, think it fitting and proper that I just leave.

I, Rachel Vickery, do hereby will and bequeath all my good times at dear old J. W. Cannon High School to "Becky" Phillips, and my work as office page to anyone who is smart enough to keep up with the work; I never was.

I, Mildred Wagoner, do hereby will and bequeath my good times at Cannon High to my cousin, Maxine Kerley, and my three girl friends, Gladys Grass, Mary Ella Cauble, and Evelyn Baker, all rising seniors.

I, Bobby Waller, being of sound body and no mind, do hereby will and bequeath to Benny Wright and Kenneth Argo my ability to graduate, knowing they will need it.

I, Ray Waller, do hereby will and bequeath my winning smile to anyone who feels good enough to smile so often.

I, Hellen Wall, do hereby will and bequeath my choir robe to anyone strong enough to stand up under the heat.

I, Joyce Weaver, do hereby will and bequeath my love for Mrs. Martin and third period study hall to Carolyn Huffman, and my love for Concord to anyone who will take advantage of it.

I, Bill Wellman, being of sound mind, do hereby will and bequeath to my brother, Al Wellman, my swell times in high school, and to a very close friend, Mitzi Brooks, I leave my love.

I, Willie Wade Wellman, do hereby will and bequeath the ability not to break boy's hearts to Phyllis Overcash, and my ability to "kid" Mr. McCarn and get by with it to my brother, Alton.

I, Joann Wells, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in chapel to Mary Fowler, a rising senior, and hope that she will have as much joy in being a senior as I have had.

I, Marie Whitaker, do hereby will and bequeath the small knowledge that I have gained at Cannon High to Barbara Hill, knowing that she will need it to graduate, and to anyone whose great ambition is to be a chemist, I gladly leave my chemistry book with all its atoms and molecules.

I, Gene Whittington, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to be stupid to Bobby Bowles, knowing that it takes a smart person to be stupid.

I, Bufort Widenhouse, do hereby will and bequeath my position on the basketball team to Zeb Bradford and "Chub" Holler, that they may play more than I did; and I also leave my golden baritone voice to Mr. Van Poole so that he can sing on the bus trips.

I, Joan Widenhouse, do hereby will and bequeath my brains in English to Carol Hipps.

I, Armond Wiles, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to date a lot of girls without going "steady" to Charles Castor, seeing he is tied down with a ball and chain (Sis); to Frances Nash, a rising freshman, I will all my good times at dear old Cannon High.

I, Rhumel Wiles, being of sound mind and shiftless body, do hereby will and bequeath $1000 (one thousand dollars) to Shirley Stevens and Marie Mullis, plus my various abilities.

I, Bill Williams, do hereby will and bequeath everything I have in school to any person who isn't willing to work for something better.

I, Frances Woodard, do hereby will and bequeath my nickname "Fat" to anyone who can fulfill the name better than I.

I, Susie Wright, do hereby will and bequeath my position on the basketball team to Clatie McLean, hoping that she doesn't have as much trouble following the training rules as I did.

I, Herman Wyatt, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to graduate to Grady Mullis.

I, J. T. Yates, do hereby will and bequeath most of my common sense to the rising sophomore class, which is something they need very badly.
